Friday 16th October 2020

On Tuesday 20th October, Alexandria Park Community School is holding a dress up day to celebrate Book Week and raise money for the Indigenous Literacy Foundation.

K-6 Students are encouraged to bring in a gold coin and dress up as their favourite book character. There will not be a parade, however the SRC will be on the lookout for the best-dressed class and there are prizes to be won!

The theme this year is Curious Creatures, Wild Minds.

Kind regards,
Molly Moore
SRC Co-ordinator
